
East Texas Town Sees the World as a Hot Prospect

By Jana Russell

Published: 12/02/2015 - 2:45pm

Worshippers at the world-renowned Sheik Zayed Grand Mosque in Abu Dhabi got a welcome respite from soaring temperatures during Ramadan this year thanks to a company in East Texas.

The mosque's palatial inner courtyard, where pilgrims gather for outdoor prayer during the holy season, is encircled by 110 large evaporative cooling units made by Portacool LLC in the small town of Center near the Louisiana border.

For more please click HERE.